About Us

In the year 2022, Ace (a unit of CDAC Brands Pvt Ltd) emerged from a void, bringing to the world a new way of living, fueled by passion, creativity, and adventure.

Our team is a group of visionaries, creators, and dreamers, who have embarked on a journey to empower every single person to pursue their passions, no matter how far-fetched they may seem. Our mission is to create the #ACEsphere, a place that transcends boundaries, where people can connect, learn, and grow together.

A place where every individual can unleash their full potential and be part of a larger movement, where innovation and quality are at the forefront. At Ace Gaming Gears, we are devoted to providing our Kreons with the most exceptional product experience, crafted with precision and innovation, and designed to inspire and elevate.

Our gear is made with the utmost care and attention, honed through 100+ hours of hands-on experience with our fellow dreamers. So, if you are looking for more than just gear, if you seek adventure, creativity, and a community that shares your values and aspirations, join us in the #ACEsphere.
